Entered as Second-Class Matter Friday, February 19th, 1904 at the Postoffice at Barbourville, Knox County, Ky., under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.
MOTTO—LIVE FOR OUR FRIENDS—DO THE GREATEST AMOUNT OF GOOD WE CAN TO THE LARGEST NUMBER OF PEOPLE.

Terms: $1. Per Year in Advance.

BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1906.

Second Year. Vol. 2. No. 47.

Hon. ROBERT W. COLE, Mayor.

CITY COUNCIL

Met Last Monday Night and Elected Officers For New Term.

J. M. Robison and W. H. McDonald
Each Re-elected For a Third Term.

Last Monday night was the regular monthly meeting of the City Council, and the Mayor, Hon. Robert Cole, and the following members of the Council-elect were sworn into office:

Councilmen A. W. Hopper, G. A. Lock, W. M. Mitchell, A. L. Parker, J. H. Cottengim, J. M. Wilson.

The Mayor and all the six members constituting the Council are successful business men of the town, popular with all the people, and all are men of the highest integrity; they are progressive and enterprising, and we predict for them a splendid administration of the affairs of the city.

This being the night for the election of officers for the present term, first, nominations were in order for City Clerk, Mr. T. D. Tinsley declined to be re-elected, whereupon Mr. Wm. McG. Dishman, who is a young attorney at the local bar and a member of one of the first families of the town, was unanimously elected for the position.

W. H. McDONALD, C. of P.

Mr. W. H. McDonald was re-elected as Chief of Police without opposition, his past record being so favorable that no one cared to enter the race against him. This makes the third time he has been honored with this office and only shows the confidence he has won in the discharge of his official duties.

The race in which the chief interest was centered was that of City Attorney. Prof. J. M. Robison and Mr. T. D. Tinsley were the aspirants. Mr. Robison won the office by a decisive majority. His opponent, Mr. Tinsley, is a popular young attorney, and stands high at the local bar. This is the third time Mr. Robison has been elected to that position. He has so faithfully and satisfactorily discharged his every duty in connection with the office that it was almost the unanimous choice, not only of the Board of Council, but of the people of the town as the man for the position.

J. M. ROBISON,
City Attorney for the Third Term

His name was prominently mentioned in connection with the Mayor's race last fall, but the people said he would make our town a splendid Mayor, but he was needed in the office where he was.

Mr. Robison is a young man of fine ability. He is a law graduate of Center College, now Central University. He has built up a lucrative practice at the local bar, and is to-day recognized as one of the strongest and most successful members of the Knox county bar. Mr. Robison is so capable and pleasant with all whom he meets. Besides his law practice, he is also engaged in the coal mining industry in Lee and Wolfe counties in this State, he being the secretary and treasurer of the North Beattyville Coal Company. This company owns a large boundary of coal in these counties.

Before engaging wholly in the practice of law Prof. Robison was engaged in teaching in this county, and for two years was instructor of the Normal department of Union College. His past experience in this office makes him especially fitted for the office, and although he has never sought political honors his friends have discovered in him a man worthy of the position and gave him a third term.

The treasurer's office was given to Mr. A. N. Herndon, a retiring councilman, and one who is in every way worthy of it and who will prove faithful and true.

This completed the list of officers, and by order of the Council, the place of meeting was changed from the W. J. Caudill building to that of D. H. Williams, on west side of the Public Square, where comfortable quarters have been arranged for the Police Court and Council Chamber and where the Chief of Police has equipped a cozy office.

The new administration bids fair to accomplish considerable advancement during this term, and we trust that they may continue to work harmoniously together and have the support of the people in making a larger and better town than we have ever yet seen of Barbourville.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Of the Barbourville Baptist Institute.

We take great pleasure in commending our teachers as specialists in their respective departments.

Prof. Lewis will have charge of the Normal; Prof. Faulkner of the Intermediate, and Miss Mabel A. Eddy, of the Primary departments. Miss Sarah Virginia Moore will have charge of the Musical departments—instrumental and vocal.

Our two gentlemen teachers are well known all over this mountain region and need no recommendation upon our part; but of our two lady teachers we do want to speak in the strongest terms.

Both have been thoroughly educated—especially trained for their work. We guarantee first-class work in Art, Elocution, and Expression, Calisthenics, Commercial and Business courses, English Literature, Physical Sciences, Ethics, Moral and Mental Sciences.

The school has opened well and promises to be an eminent success.

H. J. GREENWELL, Pres.
N. B.—We will arrange to begin a preparatory college course right at the opening of school and invite all who wish it to come right on at once.

MATTHEWS OWENS.

At Louisville Tuesday morning occurred a marriage of considerable interest to Barbourville people, the contracting parties being Mr. John E. Matthews of this place, to Miss Lucile Owens, of Cloverport.

No one here was aware of Mr. Matthews' intentions except, perhaps, his immediate relatives, although he had been here for several days on a visit to homefolks.

The romance culminating in the marriage was of several years' duration, beginning when Miss Owens was a member of the faculty of the Barbourville Institute. She is well remembered here, where she numbered her friends by her acquaintances.

Mr. Matthews is one of the most popular and successful young men whom Barbourville has turned out, and the well wishes of his many friends go with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews will reside in Philadelphia, where Mr. Matthews has a lucrative position as mechanical engineer.

Judge Paynter was nominated for the U. S. Senate on the first ballot, and Joe Blackburn is again on the retired list.

RED MEN

Install Officers for the Ensuing Term.

Last Wednesday night being the regular installation and the officers having previously been elected the following officers were installed:

John H. Hurst, Sachem.
W. D. Chamberlain, Sr. Sag.
I. H. Golden, Jr. Sag.
Charles Davis, Prophet.
J. M. Wilson, C. of R.
H. L. Hutton, K. of W.
W. G. Gray, C. of W.
W. H. McDonald, Mech.
D. T. Wilson, Trustee.

Charles Davis and D. W. Clark were selected as representatives attend the Annual Session of the Great Council.

This Tribe has enjoyed a remarkable growth, and there is never a meeting but what there is work in some, if not all, of the degrees.

Besides the installation there was work in all degrees and one admitted by card and three more petitions to be acted upon at the next meeting.

We have almost reached the century mark already.

As assignee of James A. West, and in obedience to the order of the Knox County Court, I will on Monday, January 22, 1906, sell at public sale at the Court-house door in Barbourville, the following property: One undivided one-half interest in a house and lot at Trosper, Ky., containing about one-half acre, bounded on the east by the county road, on the north by the lands of T. E. Williams, and on the south and west by the land of J. W. Bays.

Sale will be made upon a credit of six months, the purchaser being required to give bond with approved security.

WM. WEST, Assignee.

FOR SALE.

Fine Blue Grass farm of 96 acres, 8-room house, 2 large barns and other outbuildings; plenty of water, located one-quarter of a mile from pike. Price $25 per acre.

Also 50 acres with good house and outbuildings at $1,650.

For particulars, write

W. R. MUDOR, dec22 4t. Garrard County, Ky.

Nominated for Prison Commissioner.

W. W. Byrley, our retiring Sheriff and Chairman of the Eleventh Congressional district, has been nominated by the Republican caucus at Frankfort for Prison Commissioner.

This is quite a nice compliment, and no better man could be found for the position but, of course, the Democrats will refuse to support him.

Decided Against Howard.

The Supreme Court, Wednesday, handed down on opinion in the James Howard case in which it declines to take jurisdiction. This will mean that unless Howard has new evidence of offer must go to the penitentiary to begin his life term.

Promoted.

Rev. John Black Hudson, formerly of this place, but who has been located in Galveston, Texas, for the last two years, has been called to the First Presbyterian church of Victoria, Texas. This is a decided compliment and promotion to Mr. Hudson, as he is the successor of Dr. Josephus Johnson, one of the strongest men in the Southern Presbyterian church, and pastor at Victoria for thirty-two years. It is one of the oldest and strongest Presbyterian churches in Texas.

Union College Opens.

Union College began its winter term Thursday morning with a greatly increased attendance. A large number of new students have arrived from surrounding counties and from central Kentucky, the Normal department undergoing the greatest increase in attendance. Several thousand dollars have been expended in laboratory equipment lately, and that department will receive more.

EVENING POST vs. KNOX COUNTY

After a few weeks' rest the volcano is again in active eruption in Louisville and little Dickey Knott, the self-important pious editor that he is, has taken occasion to haul forth more than a column of his wrath at the Mountain Advocate for publishing plain, unvarnished facts relative to the actions of the recent grand jury of Knox county, and also of the part the court played in the matter, he says:

"The Advocate follows the course of the Courier-Journal during the campaign of 1895, concealing what could be concealed, denying what was exposed, and crying out that such publications are calculated to injure the city's fair name."

Editor Knott knows that these statements are false and he is misrepresenting the truth knowingly, when he makes them. He knows that there were numerous facts set in from here during that investigation that he withheld and refused to publish, and only gave one side of the question, and to that he added all the color it was possible to do, and denied the other side the privilege of being heard through the columns of his paper.

He says "there was an effort to intimidate the foreman of the Knox county grand jury." This is false, and known to be so by everyone who attended the court here, and the report was given out with but one purpose, and that was to throw a cloud upon the name of our county, and, if possible, cast reproach upon the names of the parties that were mentioned as about to be indicted.

The Post further says: "It does not matter what Judge Faulkner's motives are—his words speak for themselves, his actions vindicate themselves." Yes, but pray tell us how you will explain away the fact that after eye-witnesses had appeared and given positive testimony sufficient to indict members of his own household, that the grand jury was allowed to adjourn without returning indictments against them, while others were indicted upon testimony that was not near so strong, as some of the members of the grand jury have publicly stated. The Post says "the Advocate lends itself to the misrepresentation of the motives of the men."

We cannot see it that way. The Advocate has always stood for the right against the wrong, and only insisted that in as much as these cases had been gone into that they be sifted to the bottom and not allow the favored ones to go free and punish others who were less guilty.

The Post poses as a great moral organ and would be offended even at the thought of a campaign fund, but we would love to know, for the benefit of our many readers, how many thousands of dollars of the campaign funds have been paid into the coffers of the Louisville Evening Post during the past six years to keep it in line for the Republican party when it was flying the colors of a "Democratic newspaper," and "flopping around any way that the money came the strongest. If its editor thought it such a grave crime to use campaign funds, why was it that the State Campaign Committee was always called upon to "put up" so strong in order to have what little influence that paper possessed, tied on the side of the Republican party.

We think Bro. Knott has all that he needs to attend to the corrupt business of his own city and county without reaching out to the county of Knox, nestled away down in the classic hills of Southeastern Kentucky, and by slander and misrepresentation try to cast reproach upon her good name.

We love Knox county, we love her citizens, and we will not sit by and allow Mr. Knott or Mr. Anybody Else to misrepresent this part of the State without coming to its rescue and defending her good name.

We know the standing of the citizens whom the Post has labored so earnestly to drag down, and we believe it will compare favorably with that of the best citizenship of any community, and until they are proven guilty we are willing to take the presumption of the law that they are innocent, and we feel that a great injustice has been done them in this matter by persons like the Post, who outwardly appear to be their personal and political friends, but who at heart are their bitter personal and political enemies, but the scriptures warn us to "beware of the wolf in sheep's clothing."

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BLUE GRASS FARM FOR SALE.

I will sell privately my farm of 570 acres situated in Clark County, Ky., on the pike half way between Mt. Sterling and Winchester, seven miles from each town. Will sell as a whole or in three tracts. Tract No. 1, of about 250 acres, has modern dwelling of eight rooms, ice, poultry, meat, servant, granary and huggy houses; stock and tobacco barns, corn cribs, a good orchard and tenant houses. Also an up-to-date cattle barn for 130 head, containing a silo that holds enough feed for these cattle five months; is well fenced and watered and an ideal country home. Tract No. 2 of 170 acres, has two small houses and tobacco barns, mostly in grass, and is a good farm to make money on. Tract No. 3 of 150 acres, same description as No. 2.

I will gladly give a more complete description, and price it to any one who wants to buy. It must be seen to be appreciated.

TROUBLE.

It is a well known fact that everybody in every kind of business have their troubles, and it is useless to make trouble for yourself and your neighbor by putting off until next week what should be done to-day.

Time is money, and wasted time is money lost, and for this reason it costs us about three times as much as it should to collect our bills. We do not desire to be unreasonable, but we dislike to walk the town over six times a week to collect what we ought to collect in one day. It is our duty to see you and present our bill once and if you fail to pay, then it should be your duty to see us and make settlement if we grant you further time on your bill.

There must be a remedy for this and a rule established so that hereafter all light bills not paid by the 10th of each month will be cut out, unless some satisfactory agreement has been made by that time.

The Fiscal Court will hold their first meeting here next Tuesday for the purpose of organizing.

The Colonial dance given by Miss Eva Shively Tuesday evening was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

The Institute opened Wednesday morning with a gratifying attendance, which will undoubtedly greatly increase. Prof. H. J. Greenwell, formerly of Bardstown College, has assumed the presidency, and he is assisted by an able corps of instructors.

Quite a number of young people attended a dance at Middlesboro Tuesday night, including Misses Sampson, Tinsley, Logan, Culton, Shively, Matthews, Messrs. Tinsley, Hudson, Dishman, Black, Culton and Matthews. Mrs. John G. Matthews chaperoned the crowd.

The barn of Henry Riley, a prominent farmer of the upper part of the county, burned one night last week, and several cows and horses, besides a large quantity of grain, were destroyed. The fire was of incendiary origin, and bloodhounds were placed on the trail of the miscreant, but such a time had elapsed that they did no good.

On last Tuesday at the hall in Grays, the Knights of Pythias gave a public installation of officers of Mueal Lodge, No. 113. After the installation of officers the crowd in attendance was invited to the Palace hotel where two long and well filled tables awaited them. There were some of our townsmen in attendance, among them being Judge F. D. Sampson and City Attorney, J. M. Robison.

NEW SCHEDULE.

Middlesboro, Ky., Dec. 14, 1905.
To all Agents and Others Concerned:
On account of the increased passenger travel between Middlesboro and Jellico and intermediate points, and the demand for additional service, it has been decided to put on a daily train to run from Jellico to Middlesboro and return, according to the following schedule:

LEAVE	STATION	ARRIVE
7:00 a.m.	Jellico	8:45 p.m.
8:40 a.m.	Corbin	3:20 p.m.

9:17 a.m.	Arkle	3:04 p.m.
9:34 a.m.	Emanuel	2:56 p.m.
9:40 a.m.	Barbourville	2:45 p.m.
9:50 a.m.	Artemus	2:35 p.m.
10:02 a.m.	Flat Lick	2:25 p.m.
10:05 a.m.	Elv	2:22 p.m.
10:10 a.m.	Four Mile	2:15 p.m.
10:16 a.m.	Wallsend	2:08 p.m.
10:18 a.m.	Pineville	2:04 p.m.
10:24 a.m.	Wasioto	2:00 p.m.
10:34 a.m.	Perdale	1:50 p.m.
10:44 a.m.	Excelsior	1:37 p.m.
1:30 p.m.	Middlesboro	10:50 a.m.

("s" indicates stop; "f" indicates stop on flag.)

Although time is not shown at stations between Corbin and Jellico, this train will do local work and these stops will be made; they will also go from Wilton Junction to Wilton and return on the Knoxville division, both on the morning and afternoon trips. O. B. HOLLINGWORTH, Superintendent.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as they Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

THE OLD-FASHIONED WOMAN.
No clever, brilliant thinker, she, With college record and degree; She has not known the paths of fame; The world has never heard her name; She walks in old, untrodden ways—The valleys of the yesterdays.
Around her childish heart is twined As with some reverent saint enshroued;
And following hers, the childish feet Are led to ideals true and sweet, And find all purity and good In her divinest motherhood.

She keeps her faith unshaken still, God rules the world in good and ill; Men in her creed are brave and true; And women pure as pearls of dew; And life for her is high and grand, By work and glad endeavor spanned.
This sad old earth's a brighter place All for the sunshine of her face; Her very smile a blessing throws, And hearts are happier where she goes,
A gentle, clear-eyed messenger, To whisper love—thank God for her.

BOYS, you have but one mother, care for her and spare her. She is not a beast of burden to drive along the high way of life. There is no love like your mother's love; you may not know it now, but you will some day.

No home is quite complete where everything for its comfort and cheer has been done without the presence in it which redeems the too sordid pursuit of present opportunities by the tender touch of the things of the past. "What is home without a mother?" the street ballad has it, but just as true and forcible a phrase would be "What is home without a grandmother?" Whether it is the brisk and bustling grandmother, whose years set lightly and who is more useful than any brownie in the home, or the dear old saint whose work is done and who can only sit with folded hands and show us how near heaven is to earth, it is the grandmother that is the real angel in the home, and every child in the family thinks so.

A LADY received the following reply from a neighbor in answer to the question why she allowed her children and husband to litter up every room in the house, and the sentiment will find lodgment in the heart of every home-loving person in the land: "The mark of the little muddy feet upon the floor can be easier removed than the stain when those little feet go down in the high ways of evils. The prints of the little fingers on the window pane cannot shut out the sunshine half so much as the shadow that drakens the mother's heart over the one who is but a name through the coming years. And if my John finds his home a refuge from care and trouble, and his greatest happiness within its four walls, he can put his boots in the rocking chair, and hang his coat up on the floor every day in the week. And if I can stand it, I cannot see that it is anybody's else's business."

MANY a time a happy home and happy face does more to make good men and women than all the learning and eloquence that can be used. It has been said that the sweetest words in our language are "Mother, Home and Heaven," and one might almost say the word home includes them all, for who can think of home without remembering the gentle mother who sanctified it by her presence? And is not home the dearest name in the heaven? We think of the better land as a home where brightness will never end in earth. Oh, then, may our homes on night be the centers of all our joys; may they be as green spots in the desert to which we can retire when weary of the cares and perplexities of life and drink the clear waters of love which we know to be sincere and always unfailing.

LOVE AT HOME.

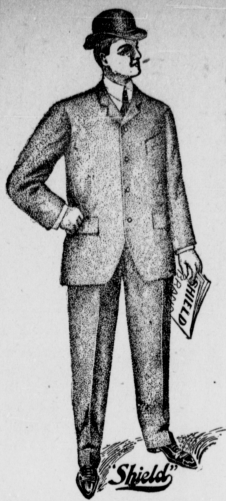

Let love at home always stand with her arms over us to help lift the burdens that otherwise would weigh us down. Love lights a lamp that glows on when all might be shrouded in gloom. Love, sweet angel, strengthens the weary and steadies the hand that carries cordial to the sufferer's lips.

"Time will softly, sweetly glide, When there's love at home."

Admit and keep love as a member of your household. Never for one moment think that your doing is important, even if much of the wife and mother's time is passed in the kitchen. The noblest and the wisest live by eating, non-poetic and common as it only seem. Think, tired housewife, not of the piano trained fingers as becoming stiff and awkward and flushed from moulding the "staff of life," but consider what the members of your home are accomplishing. Your son is taking high rank in college and your daughter is to go as a missionary, and they derive strength of mind, frame and muscle from "mother's table." Are you not doing something indispensable? Your kitchen efforts help to run all the machinery of life. What would become of home if in discouragement the mother and home girls cease their doing? Out of the well-kept homes come the noblest of the land.

intended for any one to be idle. The more work you do the sweeter will be your sleep and brighter and happier your holidays. Take off your coat and make a dust in the world. But we would not repress your buoyant spirits or shut you out from all that is glad and happy in this beautiful world. We would like to pass an ordinance for each neighborhood to have a large play ground where the boys could meet at least once a week and enjoy a holiday. We would have it just as pleasant as it could be made, shaded by lovely trees, plenty of soft grass to tumble on and singing birds overhead. This will be so much nicer for our boys than loitering on street corners. We would have the old fashioned games of our grandfather's played, not as modern improvements for developing the muscles. But listen, boys, we would not have any pastime you would blush for your parents or sisters to witness, such as search and witter every high and noble aspiration, degrade the soul and prepares the way for many of the sins that now corrupt. We would not have that lovely spot desecrated by an oath.

Why Buy McClure's?
McClure's Magazine is bought and read in homes not because it is a magazine, but because it is the magazine. Why?
FIRST—THE PRICE. It costs but one dollar a year less than 10 cents a number, for over thirteen two-column pages of reading matter. This amounts in actual bulk to twenty or twenty-five books costing anywhere from a dollar to two dollars a volume.
SECOND—QUALITY. The reading matter is written by America's leading writers—the best, short story writers, on timely articles, the best writers of important serials, such as Schurz's Reminiscences or Baker's Railroad articles.
THIRD—TIMELINESS. The reading matter in McClure's is not only good; it is not only entertaining, amusing, instructive and inspiring—it is also about the subjects in which you and all Americans are most interested at the time. No subjects in the next twelve months are going to be so important as the question of railroad rates and rebates and the question of life insurance. Both of these questions will be discussed by authorities in an impartial, careful, interesting way.
FOURTH—ITS CHARACTER. McClure's Magazine is not edited for children, but at the same time, there is never a line in it that any young girl might not read. Its advertising pages are as clean as its editorial pages.
McClure's Magazine
in your home is intended to work only for good. Send $1.00 to-day for one year's subscription, or leave an order at your book-store. November and December free with new subscriptions for 1906.
S. S. MCCLURE COMPANY, 47 East 23d Street NEW YORK.
You can earn a good income by taking up the business of securing subscribers for McClure's. It is clean and self-respecting—a publication any man or woman would like to represent. The pay is 25 cents for each $1.00 subscription, in addition to big cash prizes for the best work. Write to-day for full particulars
